

JEN SILLS, ARNP

Joined TSHC in July 2016

JEN SILLS, ARNP, is originally from Marshalltown, Iowa, just east of Ames. She appreciates having the time to incorporate and focus on the latest research and evidence based medicine in her practice here at Thielen Student Health Center.

During her time in the private sector, she practiced in several specialties including Internal Medicine, Geriatrics, Dermatology, Orthopedic Spine Surgery, Hospice & Palliative Care and Urgent Care. Jen enjoys having the luxury of more time with her patients because she can be more thorough in exams and spend time educating them about their unique healthcare needs as well as getting to know them as a person.

Jen and her husband, an Iowa State graduate, have three sons. In her free time, she enjoys hiking, swimming and traveling.
