

MARIE BURROWS, ARNP

Joined TSHC in August 2014

MARIE BURROWS, ARNP, grew up in northwest Iowa. As an alum of Iowa State, she was thrilled to return and work with the diverse population and community. Marie enjoys educating students on best practices and says they are very eager to learn about their options when it comes to healthcare.

Before joining the team at Thielen Student Health Center, Marie worked as a nurse in intensive care.

Marie and her husband live in Ames and recently welcomed their first child. In addition to spending time with their son, Marie can be found watching Cyclone Basketball and enjoying the outdoors.
